SAIC AWARDS U.S. ARMY BIOMETRICS TASK FORCE SUBCONTRACT TO PROJECT MANAGEMENT AND CONSULTING, LLC

Company to Support the Biometrics Operations and Support Services Unrestricted (BOSS-U) Program

(FREDERICKSBURG, Va.) Feb. 10, 2009 – Project Management and Consulting, LLC (PMC) today announced it has been awarded a subcontract by Science Applications International Corporation [NYSE: SAI] to provide biometrics support services to the Army's Biometrics Task Force (BTF) in support of the Biometrics Operations and Support Services Unrestricted (BOSS-U) program. SAIC's multiple award, indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity prime contract has a three year base period of performance, two one-year options and a total contract ceiling of $497 million for all awardees.

The BTF leads Department of Defense activities to program, integrate, and synchronize biometric technologies and capabilities and to operate and maintain DoD's authoritative biometric database to support the National Security Strategy. The BOSS-U program enables BTF businesses and program units to accomplish mission objectives by tasking Project Management and Consulting, LLC through SAIC and other contractors to provide services as required in areas including management support, infrastructure procurement design; development and integration; operations and maintenance; advanced technology demonstration; studies and analysis; and test and evaluation.

"It is an honor and a privilege to work with an industry leader like SAIC to support the BTF on identity management capabilities in our continued efforts for biometric technology and advances," said Bryan Rock, Project Management and Consulting, LLC managing member and owner.
